

Main Test Survey

1. a.) Your name is _Goldie Wong_ and you are in _2015 Winter_ You have a personal commitment that overlaps with your school schedule. It will require you to be absent for a week. Please find out which classes you will be missing on the last week of the first month.

1. a2.) You want to review your web project, please find your personal site.

Main Test Survey

(Mobile) 1.b.) Your name is _Max Latham_ and you are in _2013 Fall_ you would like to plan a personal commitment over the ring break. Please find out when that is.

1. b2.) You want to review your web project, please find your personal site.

Main Test Survey

2.) You are a prospective student. During your search for the program you accidentally stumble upon on this site and you want to find out how/were to apply. See where you can find this information.

Is this the right place to apply? If not where do you go?

Main Test Survey

3.) You are a current student working on a project. You have forgotten how to create a coding element. You know there are tutorial links on the student site but don't know where.

Please find the tutorials.

Main Test Survey

4.) You are a prospective student and want to contact one of the facility administrators to answer a few questions.

Find the email address for one of the administrators.

Main Test Survey

5.) You are a prospective student who wants to learn JavaScript. You want to email the instructor of the JavaScript class to see if you can sit in on a class before applying.

Find the instructor; what is their name and email?

Main Test Survey

6.) You are unsure if there is a final project in the program.

Please find the place where you can go to check.

Main Test Survey

7.) You forgot how to access the project server and you lost the paper with the server information. You know the answer is on the student website.

Please find the instructions to access the program server.